Angelica Homeowners Angry

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
APRIL 21, 1992-by BRIAN KEENE

Selectmen were joined unexpectedly Tuesday night by several homeowners from the Angelica Point area who were upset with what they perceived to be an unnecessary delay in the permitting process surrounding reconstruction in the wake of Hurricane Bob. Residents are angry because they feel that the Board of Appeals has been too slow in handing out written decisions on cases that were heard March 19th. "This is our home. We don't

Friends of Band Concerts

COMMITTEE FORMED

Last Wednesday night, April 22nd, a "Friends of the Band Concerts" Committee was formed. The committee is made up of fourteen members with Archibald Lammey serving as chairman. The purpose of the committee is to raise approximately $5,000 to cover the costs of eight summer concerts. We are trying to continue a 115 year tradition of summer band concerts in Mattapoisett.

The committee approved a fund-raising project of selling large badges with a picture of the Gazebo, in color, and encircled with the words "Friends of the Mattapoisett Band Concerts - 1992". These badges will sell for a $10. donation. They could be worn to the concerts to show your support. We hope to have the badges available by the mid-to-end of May. Information will be given then as to where you may purchase them.

Some donations have already been received from interested citizens which will give a good foundation to our drive. We thank these concerned citizens for getting us started.

From the Town Clerk

TOWN OF MATTAPOISETT

DOGS: Mattapoisett Town Clerk Lois K. Ennis reminds all dog owners that dog li-

WERE NOTIFIED by Executive Secretary Carol Adams that people have inquired at the Town Hall in regards to the Town Report. As yet, no copies have been printed but Selectmen are hoping to have copies for the Town Hall and the Library soon.

Capital Improvements: ORRHS

RECOMMENDATIONS RELEASED

A select group of members of the Old Rochester Regional Advisory Committee met Saturday, April 18th, with members of the ORR School and Advisory Committees to release their recommendations for capital improvements to the ORR Senior High School.

Peter Hodges from Mattapoisett, chairman of the ad hoc committee of selectmen and finance committee members from the three towns, unveiled a six point plan of repairs and upgrades involving asbestos abatement, fire doors, handicap access, boiler replacement, electrical systems, and enclosure of the on-site sewer plant.

These recommendations are a result of six months of effort by the ad hoc group and represent a plan of work that all the selectmen agree is necessary to maintain the building and that they will all support in their respective towns. This represents a significant departure from previous attempts where no consensus could be reached among the three towns.

Mr. Hodges estimated that the three towns will need to raise approximately $60,000.00 to fund a pre-bidding design and construction plan. This plan will provide alternative ways to address the building's problems that directly affect the physical structure of the school.

The recommendations must be approved by the Advisory Committee and the School Committee before they are referred to the towns for action. The three towns may have a chance to vote on the plan as early as the upcoming annual town meetings.

This committee reported:

We have observed that since this group first convened, noticeable improvements have been made in several areas, particularly the boiler room appearance and electrical fixtures in the chemical laboratory.

However, our group does feel strongly that certain improvements must be made now to prevent further deterioration and ultimately reduce costs through improved and more efficient utilization of resources.

The single theme which we addressed was the consideration of projects directly related to preserving the physical structure of the building. There are no new facilities or additions to present facilities in our proposal. The group was unanimous in its support of this approach. In essence, this is a "bare bones" approach to renovation and improvement.

The initial request to appear on 1992 town meeting warrants in each community is for a proportionate share of $60,000 intended to be spent for a pre-bidding phase for design and construction studies.

We intend to ask the chosen bidder to provide assistance in the following areas:

1. Electrical Engineering
2. Mechanical Engineering
3. Cost Estimates
4. Environmental Engineering
5. Handicap Access

RECOMMENDATIONS - PHASE ONE

1. Sewer Plant Enclosure - Estimate based on cost of non-corrosive materials to enclose existing sewerage facilities. Committee has a preference for less expensive enclosure and suggests evaluation of a sewerage membrane.

2. Asbestos - Remove or encapsulate asbestos insulation on piping and mechanical equipment throughout the school building.

funds given by the Marion Town Committee several years ago for this purpose. The Marion Board of Selectmen and the Conservation Commission approve this project.

With a special "thank you" to Rob Zora, Superintendent of the Department of Public Works, and the DPW workers, the roses will be dug, the new holes made at Silvershell Beach, and the snow fencing restored to protect the area from the erosion to which it is prone.

The remaining work will require a few people for a brief time -- 1) to plant the 25 rose bushes (very prickly); 2) to pack the water side of the fence with seaweed to disperse the sea water, especially in strong storms. Come if you can, but if not, perhaps when you are walking the beach, you could gather a bit of seaweed--the more we have, the greater the protection against erosion.

Then, think of the beauty we will have at Silvershell for generations to come.

Lighthouse Hospice

ANNUAL GIVING CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

The tenth Annual Giving Campaign for Lighthouse Hospice was launched at a tea for captains and solicitors earlier this month, according to Hugh O'Brien of East Wareham, director of fund-raising for the Wareham-based organization. Membership applications are being mailed this week to present and prospective members throughout the Lighthouse service area.

To mark the tenth anniversary of Lighthouse, successor to the former Wareham Area Hospice and Lakeville/Middleboro Hospice, a goal of $30,000 has been set for the drive. A total of $100,000 from this and other fund-raising activities will be needed to fund the group's work for the coming year.

Community captains for the campaign include Betty Cooney, Marion; Evelyn Pursley, Mattapoisett; Winifred Hartley and Katherine Church, Rochester; Emilie Rose, Wareham; Allison Cook, Buzzards Bay; Rachel Penti, Carver; and Ann Pappi, Lakeville/Middleboro. Other solicitors are Helen Arthur, Jean Briggs, Cherrell Hughes, Harriet Mason and Kathie Moore, all of Marion; Liz Field, Mattapoisett, and Dr. Betty Gleason, Wareham.

Cod", lower gallery of the Shaker Round Barn; "The age of Discovery and Conquest" in the Military Museum. In addition to these shows will be six changing art exhibitions in the Old Barn Gallery beginning with "A Child Forever: The Folk Paintings of Rosebee". A number of special programs, concerts and special events will be presented throughout the season.

"The Songless Aviary: The World of A.E. Crowell & Son", the lives and carvings of Elmer and Cleon Crowell, focuses around the recently acquired collection of patterns used by the Crowells to create their sculptures. These are displayed along with two hundred examples of the Crowell's work drawn from the permanent collection of Heritage Plantation and loans from private collectors and other museums. The carvings on display date from the nineteenth century through 1960 and include signed examples by both Father and Son. Decoys, models, miniatures, weathervanes and fish carvings are included with a particular emphasis on signed and dated examples of the work of both men, which will be displayed side by side for comparison. The patterns, many of which have notations and dates, provide a rare opportunity to study the creative endeavors that precede the actual sculptures. A number of partially completed carvings are also included in the show.

The exhibition contains numerous photographs, oil paintings by Elmer, original lists of the sets of miniatures, ornithology books from Crowell's library and other source material used by the Crowells. Examples of all known brands, stamps, labels and signatures will be examined and thoughts on their "Views of Cape Cod" is the new exhibition in the lower gallery of the Shaker Round Barn. Heritage Plantation has always been known for its collections of paintings by Ralph Cahoon and Frank Vining Smith which have been shown on a regular basis by popular demand. For the past several years the Museum has also attempted to acquire works by other artists who have lived on the Cape and captured its unique scenery in a variety of mediums. The recent gift of over 50 paintings, prints and drawings from the artist and former Cape resident, Elliot Orr, has prompted the Plantation to organize this exhibit, from its growing collections of 20th century art. The show portrays the Cape's many moods, and includes some old favorites as well as recent acquisitions. This colorful exhibition of paintings presents the works of Ralph and Martha Cahoon, Frank Vining Smith, John O'Hara Cosgrave, Elliot Orr, Laurence Jensen, Sig Perwin and Anne Teufel. "The Age of Discovery and Conquest" is the new featured exhibition in the Military Museum. The current year marks the 500th anniversary of the first voyage of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Heritage's show acknowledges this event and examines developments in cartography and navigation during the late 15th, 16th and 17th centuries and also investigates the political and social implications of the European conquest of the newly discovered lands. Some of the diverse objects on display in the exhibit include maps, navigational instruments, paintings, prints, arms, armor and native American artifacts. Several are drawn from the Heritage Plantation collection while others are on loan from the Peabody Museum in Salem, the Higgins Armory, the Reading Museum, the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, Harvard University, the Anne S.K. Brown Military Collection and the John Carter Brown Library, Brown University.

Greater N.B. Concert Series

The 1991-92 Greater New Bedford Concert Series (GNBCS) presents pianist Rudolf Firkusny on Saturday, May 2nd, at 8:00 p.m. Acclaimed as one of the premier keyboard artists of our time, Mr. Firkusny comes from a richly varied background of Czechoslovak and Central European musical traditions. At the Zeiterion he will perform the following pieces: Janacek's "October 1, 1906", Schubert's "Two Impromptus, Op. 90", Beethoven's "Sonata in D major, Op. 10, No. 3", Debussy's "Suite bergamesque", and Schumann's "Fantasia in C major, Op 17".

Hailed for his masterful performances of the Classic, Romantic and early 20th century repertoires, he is also considered the world's foremost exponent of Czech music, and has championed the works of Smetana, Dvorak, Janacek and Martinu throughout his distinguished career. Mr. Firkusny's recent RCA Victor Red Seal recording of solo piano pieces by Martinu, who was his close friend and colleague, was nominated for a Grammy award.

In May 1990 Mr. Firkusny gave his first concert in his native country in 44 years with the Czech Philharmonic, acknowledging the return of democracy to Czechoslovakia and ending the long, voluntary exile which was his way of protesting the totalitarian rule of his homeland. President Vaclav Havel and thousands of music lovers filled every seat in the vast Art Deco auditorium for the recital, and gave Mr. Firkusny a standing ovation that lasted seven minutes after he played the solo part in Martinu's Piano Concerto No. 2, as he had done in its premiere 55 years ago. While in Czechoslovakia he received numerous musical and academic honors, including an Honorary Doctorate from Charles University, the Gold Medal of the Performing Arts Academy of Prague, and honorary citizenships in both Prague and his birthplace, Napajedla.

Active on the international scene for more than six decades, Mr. Firkusny, who celebrates his 80th birthday this season, has performed regularly on five continents in recital and as soloist with virtually every major symphony orchestra. He lives with his family in New York, where he received the Mayor's "Ethnic New Yorker Award" for his contributions to the city's cultural life. He continues to teach a limited number of advanced students at the Juilliard School.

Tickets for Mr. Firkusny's concert are $15.00, $19.00 and $23.00; senior/student $2. discount; group rates available. Tickets are available at the Zeiterion Box Office

It was one of the five songs they cut when they were in Nashville and started recording ten years ago. It was also one of the four songs that she had on the national charts. Betty and Jerry Caron have been selected as the best duo three times at the annual Massachusetts Country Music Association awards ceremony. Their

Saturday Youth Theatre

AT NEW BEDFORD'S ZEITERION

Zeiterion's Saturday Youth Theatre presents "THE LEGEND OF PECOS BILL AND THE SECRET OF INVISIBILITY" performed by The Gingerbread Players and Jack on May 9th for two shows, 10:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Citizens Bank of Massachusetts (formerly Fairhaven Savings Bank) is sponsoring the theatre's youth series for the fifth year in a row. All of the Saturday Youth shows open with a live organ recital on the theatre's restored Grimshaw-Gudewicz Wurlitzer Theatre Organ performed by members of the Southeastern New England Theatre Organ Society, the caretakers of the organ.

The New York Daily News wrote: "Pecos Bill, King of the Cowboys, is in town with a wagon-load of action, music and tales. Paul Bunyan and Johnny Appleseed had better look to their legends. For years, the wild adventures of the lean and lanky cowboy who had been raised by a family of coyotes and given 'special powers' have fired the imagination of youngsters. The Gingerbread Players and Jack - a crackerjack theatre company - have taken the stories, mixed them with an impeccable cast, book and music, and come up with the best children's play this season."

Pecos Bill is one of those memorable characters to rise from American folklore, and ranks up there with Paul Bunyan, Johnny Appleseed and Annie Oakley. As the original American Cowboy, he is credited with inventing all things western from rodeos and cowboy dancing to chaps, hats, spurs and lassoing.

The Gingerbread Players and Jack present the story in their own unique style exploring the themes of friendship, and the true meaning of courage. In their play, Pecos lives on his Lazy J Ranch with his two best friends Bullfrog and Beanpole. The ranch is visited by Lady Amelia Eyeglass, a vacationing English spinster, and her niece, Susan, whose great ambition is to become a cowboy. The contrast between their very proper British culture and that of the Wild west provides much of the show's charm. A stampede, a cyclone and the activities of the villainous Moon Henessy create an action-packed show.

The Zeiterion Theatre and the Children's Museum of South Dartmouth have planned a special family event in conjunction with the theatre's 1:00 p.m. showing of Pecos Bill on Saturday, May 9th. The event - "HANDS ON! FAMILY THEATRE DAY" - begins at 10:00 a.m. with a Western Workshop making shirts, chaps and learning some square dancing, followed by a bring-your-own brown bag lunch at the museum, and then off to the "Z" to see the afternoon show of Pecos Bill. The event is for children ages 5 and up with an adult. Tickets are $10.00 per child and $5.00 per adult which includes the entire day's activities. There is a $2.00 discount on children's tickets for museum members. To register for this event call the Children's Museum, 276 Gulf Road, South Dartmouth at 993-3361.

Tickets for Pecos Bill are $5.00 each, general admission; group rates available. Tickets are available at the Zeiterion Box Office and are also available at all Ticketmaster
